

IN BRIEF

£5,000 donation bowls 'em over

A ten pin bowling league on Wednesday evenings is one of many activities in the Little Horton area that can now go ahead because of a £5,000 donation from the Halifax.

The cash was handed over by bank staff to Andrew Wilkinson of Impact Community Developments, based at the Haselbury

Apartments in Crowther Walk. The donation would pay for activities for young people to divert them from drug abuse and crime, said Mr Wilkinson.

Impact works on the Canterbury estate and Little Horton areas, recognised in recent Government statistics as the second most disadvantaged area in England.